For some of your personal information you will have a legal, contractual or other requirement or obligation for you to provide us with your personal information. If you do not provide your club/us with the requested personal information we may not be able to admit you as a member or we may not be able to properly perform our duties with you or comply with legal obligations and we may have to terminate your position as a member. For other personal information you may not be under an obligation to provide it to us, but if you do not provide it then we may not be able to properly perform our agreement with you.

Where you have given us your consent to use your personal information in a particular manner, you have the right to withdraw this consent at any time, which you may do by contacting us as described in the "Contacting us" section below.

Please note however that the withdrawal of your consent will not affect any use of the data made before you withdrew your consent and we may still be entitled to hold and process the relevant personal information to the extent that we are entitled to do so on bases other than your consent. Withdrawing consent may also have the same effects as not providing the information in the first place, for example we may no longer be able to provide certain member benefits to you.

We store your data securely on systems that meet all current data protection standards which are managed by our IT providers. This includes internal databases and JustGo Membership platform. Your personal information is stored primarily on servers based in the UK and Europe and is accessed by our staff and volunteers for the purposes detailed in this notice. We will occasionally store some types of member data on Box to enable us to share data and as this is a US-based companies your data may be transferred out of the EU but will at all times be stored in compliance with the GDPR.

If you are in our performance programme, we are required to transfer your personal information out of the EU for the purposes of entering you into competitions and booking travel. Where your personal information is transferred out of the EU, we can provide you with information regarding the safeguards that we have put in place with the recipient country to protect your personal information.

4. DIRECT MARKETING

Email, post and SMS marketing: from time to time, we may contact you by email, post or SMS with information about products and services we believe you may be interested in.

We will only send marketing messages to you in accordance with the marketing preferences you set. You can then let us know at any time that you do not wish to receive marketing messages by emailing us: admin@swimwales.org.

You can also unsubscribe from our marketing by clicking on the unsubscribe link in the marketing messages we send to you.

5. DISCLOSURE OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We share personal information with the following parties:

- Any party approved by you.
- To any governing bodies or regional bodies for the sports: to allow them to properly administer the sports on a local, regional and national level. This will include international at certain levels of participation.
- Other service providers: for example, email marketing specialists, payment processors, data analysis, CCTV contractors, promotional

- advisors, contractors or suppliers and IT services (including CRM, website, video- and teleconference services);
- Our supply chain partners and sub-contractors, such as couriers, import/export agents, shippers,
 - Our Commercial Partners: for the purposes of providing you with information on any tickets, special offers, opportunities, products and services and other commercial benefits provided by our commercial partners as part of your membership
 - The Government or our regulators: where we are required to do so by law or to assist with their investigations or initiatives.
 - Police, law enforcement and security services: to assist with the investigation and prevention of crime and the protection of national security.

We do not disclose personal information to anyone else except as set out above.

6. TRANSFERRING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION INTERNATIONALLY

The personal information we collect may be transferred to and stored in countries outside of the UK and the European Union. Some of these jurisdictions require different levels of protection in respect of personal information and, in certain instances, the laws in those countries may be less protective than the jurisdiction you are typically resident in. We will take all reasonable steps to ensure that your personal information is only used in accordance with this privacy notice and applicable Legislation and is respected and kept secure and where a third part processes your data on our behalf we will put in place appropriate safeguards as required under the Legislation. For further details please contact us by using the details set out in the "Contacting us" section below.

Engaging with us on Social Media

Any social media posts or comments you send to us (on the Swim Wales Facebook page, for instance) will be shared under the terms of the relevant social media platform (e.g. Facebook, Twitter, Instagram) on which they are written and could be made public. Other people, not us, control these platforms. We are not responsible for this kind of sharing.

Before you make any remarks or observations about anything, you should review the terms and conditions and privacy policies of the social media platforms you use. That way, you'll understand how they will use your information, what information relating to you they will place in the public domain, and how you can stop them from doing so if you're unhappy about it.

HOW LONG DO WE KEEP PERSONAL INFORMATION FOR?

The duration for which we retain your personal information will differ depending on the type of information and the reason why we collected it from you. However, in some cases personal information may be retained on a long-term basis: for example, personal information that we need to retain for legal purposes will normally be retained in accordance with usual commercial practice and regulatory requirements. Generally, where there is no legal requirement we retain all physical and electronic records for a period of 6+1 years after your last contact with us. Exceptions to this rule are:

- CCTV records which are held for no more than 30 days unless we need to preserve the records for the purpose of prevention and detection of crime;
- Information that may be relevant to personal injury claims, or discrimination claims may be retained until the limitation period for those types of claims has expired. For personal injury or discrimination claims this can be an extended period as the limitation period might not start to run until a long time after you have ceased your connection with us.
- Anonymised archived records which prevents the identification of data subjects.
- Safeguarding concerns for lawful purposes.

It is important to ensure that the personal information we hold about you is accurate and up-to-date, and you should let your club/us know if anything changes, for example if you change your phone number or email address.

You may be able to update some of the personal information we hold about you by advising your club/us who will change information via the membership portal. Alternatively, you can contact us using by using the details set out in the "Contacting us" section below.

YOUR RIGHTS IN RELATION TO PERSONAL INFORMATION

You have the following rights in relation to your personal information:

- the right to be informed about how your personal information is being used;
- the right to access the personal information we hold about you;
- the right to request the correction of inaccurate personal information we hold about you;
- the right to request the erasure of your personal information in certain limited circumstances;
- the right to restrict processing of your personal information where certain requirements are met;
- the right to object to the processing of your personal information;
- the right to request that we transfer elements of your data either to you or another service provider; and
- the right to object to certain automated decision-making processes using your personal information.

You should note that some of these rights, for example the right to require us to transfer your data to another service provider or the right to object to automated decision making, may not apply as they have specific requirements and exemptions which apply to them and they may not apply to personal information recorded and stored by us. For example, we do not use automated decision making in relation to your personal data. However, some have no conditions attached, so your right to withdraw consent or object to processing for direct marketing are absolute rights.

Whilst this privacy notice sets out a general summary of your legal rights in respect of personal information, this is a very complex area of law. More information about your legal rights can be found on the Information Commissioner's website at <https://ico.org.uk/for-the-public/>.

To exercise any of the above rights, or if you have any questions relating to your rights, please contact us by using the details set out in the "Contacting us" section below.

If you are unhappy with the way we are using your personal information, you can also complain to the UK Information Commissioner's Office or your local data protection regulator. We are here to help and encourage you to contact us to resolve your complaint first.

7. CHANGES TO THIS NOTICE

We may update this privacy notice from time to time. When we change this notice in a material way, we will update the version date at the bottom of this page. For significant changes to this notice we will try to give you reasonable notice unless we are prevented from doing so. Where required by law we will seek your consent to changes in the way we use your personal information.

8. CONTACTING US

In the event of any query or complaint in connection with the information we hold about you, please email admin@swimwales.org or write to us at Swim Wales, Wales National Pool, Sketty Lane, Swansea. SA2 8QG. Tel; 01792 513636
